THE LOST DREDGE ADMIRAL.

The mud dredge Admiral had not been found up to last night, but the water tank, towed by the dredge had. She was picked up by the tug Pioneer yesterday and towed in the Capes at about 11:20 a. m. The fact that she had broken loose from the dredge and also that the dredge has thus far not been sightled, leads many to think that the latter in on the bottom.

The fact that the tug Ocean King towed a mud dredge through the Capes Fridry evening led many to think the Admiral was found, but it was soon made sure that this was a mistake, the mud dredge being one the tug had brought from New York, and was towing to Baltimore.

The bark Moss Glen will be repaired here, and is now resting on Berkley flats, the clank of her pumps ended and her crew at rest. She has been visited by numbers since her grival and the heroism and pluck of her captain and erew have lest nothing by a study of her condition.

MISSING VESSELS.

Among the list of missing vessels from the winter gales are the following eight big freight steamers in the North Atlantic trade, most of which are known here, having leaded or conled at Lambert's Point piers.

The Picton, from Newport News, Laughton, from New Orleans; Dora Fors'er, from Savannah, Minister Maybach and Port Melbourne, from New York; Oberon, from Baltimore; Arona, from Portland, Me, and Alleghany, the tanker that was sunk so long in the Delaware and reflited, from New York via Halifax. Some of these may yet turn up, but it seems unlikely. Their crews numbered 249.

"Like Diamonds Raindrops Glisten."

Drops of Hood's Sarsaparilla are precious jewels for the blood which glisten in their use, and, like the rain, disappear for the good of humanity. Each dose when taken is in a very short time thoroughly mixed with the blood and actively getting in its work of purification. Hood's never disappoints.

Wilk Leg-" When my last child was Milk Leg-" When my last child was born in Lockport, N. Y., in 1874, I became afflicted with milk leg in terrible form. Our family physician was faithful but could only relieve temporarily. Keeping boarders, I was on my feet a great deal. Finally the dye in some red stockings poisoned my infamed ankles, making many sores. I was in continual misery, gangrene settling in tive times. The bones were visible, linger and toe nails came off and my hair came out. I could not sleep without opicites, I dreaded death, but dreaded life all the more. I suffered until the spring of 1892 when our drugglist suggested that I try flood's Sarsaparilla as a last resort. The discharges gradually healed, new flesh formed, new nails and hair grew, until after taking twenty bottles I was completely cured and I naturally bless the medicine. It is now March, '95 and I am still well." Mas. CYNTHIA A. EDWARDS, 1127 Cleveland Av., Suspension Bridge, N. Y.

* Later. She is "still in good health."

Crip—" Sixteen weeks of grip made me weak but after all else failed Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me. Later I overworked, and dyspepsia and canker in mouth and stomach bothered me. I took the Sarsaparilla again and it completely restored me."
